

Code of Conduct

Library users are expected to behave in a manner that allows the library to be a pleasant place to visit for everyone. All library visitors are expected to:

1. Show respect for all library users, staff, furnishings, and materials.
2. Refrain from harassing anyone or impeding the use of the library by others.
3. Keep voices low and language civil.
4. Properly check out library materials and follow other circulation guidelines.
5. Refrain from using the library as a place to sleep.
6. Refrain from boisterous conduct, running, throwing items, or other conduct which could endanger anyone.
7. Keep entrances, doorways, and stairs (both inside and outside) clear for other people.
8. Use the furniture and other facilities in an appropriate manner.
9. Refrain from gathering in large groups, as the resulting noise and behaviors easily become disturbing to other library users.
10. Refrain from using tobacco on library property.
11. Refrain from bringing beverages or food into the library.
12. Refrain from using skateboards, scooters or in-line skates on library property.
13. Use cell phones only in lobby area to avoid disturbing other library users
14. Utilize earphones at a low volume on electronic devices while inside the library building.
15. Adhere to all Pioneerland Library System policies as well as local, state, and federal laws while utilizing library facilities and resources.

Persons who choose to violate these rules may be asked to leave the library. Repeat offenders may have their library privileges suspended.
